

Article Overview

Several Dutch companies specialize in custom primary distribution boxes, offering tailored sizes, materials, and printing options to meet specific packaging needs.

Leading Custom Box Manufacturers in the Netherlands

1. DUTCHBOXX DUTCHBOXX has nearly 60 years of experience in corrugated cardboard packaging. They produce a wide range of boxes, including folding boxes, shipping boxes, pallet boxes, and XXL boxes. They also supply packaging materials like tape, bubble wrap, and corner pieces, making them a comprehensive partner for custom packaging solutions in the Netherlands . 2. Holland Packaging Holland Packaging offers both standard and custom packaging solutions. They provide printed boxes, packaging materials, and specialist custom designs. Their services include personalizing shipping boxes with logos or company names and offering protective materials for transport. They also advise clients on the best packaging options for branding and product safety . 3. WE BOX IT WE BOX IT specializes in fully bespoke packaging solutions. They allow complete customization of box design, size, and materials, suitable for both small and large production volumes. Their focus is on creating visually appealing and functional packaging tailored to individual products . 4. Vrijdag Vrijdag provides custom-made packaging with a prototype service, allowing clients to see a 3D model before production. They cater to industries such as beverages, chocolate, watches, perfumes, technical goods, and clothing. Special printing effects and mock-ups are available, with a minimum order quantity of 2,500 pieces . 5. Other Notable Options

- o YourBoxShop: Offers digitally printed corrugated cardboard boxes for shipping and moving, customizable for branding purposes .

- o Sparck Technologies: Provides 3D automated fit-to-size packaging, reducing material waste and improving packing efficiency, ideal for e-commerce .

- o PaperFoam(R): Focuses on eco-friendly, biobased packaging solutions with custom designs for sustainable branding .

Considerations for Choosing a Manufacturer

- o Material: Corrugated cardboard, luxury cardboard, or eco-friendly biobased materials.

- o Customization: Size, printing, logo placement, and protective inserts.

- o Volume: Some manufacturers accommodate small runs, while others focus on large-scale production.

- o Prototyping: Companies like Vrijdag offer 3D prototypes to visualize the final product.

- o Sustainability: Eco-conscious options are available from PaperFoam(R) and ZustaInaBox. These manufacturers provide a range of solutions for businesses seeking custom primary distribution boxes in the Netherlands, from standard shipping boxes to high-end branded packaging.
