

Price of Easy-to-Install Cable Trays in Asia

Article Overview

Cable tray prices in Asia vary by type, size, and material, ranging from approximately $1/meter for plastic trays to INR16-INR67 per coupler plate in India, with additional costs for installation and accessories.

Price Overview by Region

India:

- o Coupler plates for 25-50 mm height cable trays: INR16-INR44 per piece, depending on supplier and specifications (M.G. Cable Industries, Manibhadra)
- o Coupler plates for 75-100 mm height cable trays: INR30-INR67 per piece
- o Standard tray lengths are typically 2.5 meters, with hot-dip galvanization for corrosion resistance
- o Minimum order quantities often start at 50 meters, with delivery within 3-5 days, excluding GST Indonesia:
- o Trayindo offers a variety of cable trays including ladder, wire mesh, and solid duct types
- o Prices are not fixed online; customers are advised to request a quote for specific sizes and materials
- o Accessories such as hangers, clamps, and end plates are available to support installation

Markets:

- o Prefabricated and modular cable trays are increasingly popular for reducing labor costs
- o Plastic optic fiber trays are available at approximately $1/meter, suitable for IT and sensitive installations
- o Material options include steel, aluminum, and eco-friendly recyclable designs
- o Pricing is influenced by raw material costs, supply chain delays, and project scale

Installation and Accessories Costs

- o Installation costs vary depending on labor rates, project complexity, and tray type
- o Accessories such as coupler plates, clamps, hangers, and end plates are typically priced per piece and are essential for secure installation
- o Modular systems can reduce on-site labor and accelerate ROI, especially in commercial and industrial projects

Key Considerations

- o Prices fluctuate due to steel and aluminum market trends
 - o Delivery timelines may be affected during peak construction seasons
 - o Eco-friendly and perforated designs may have higher upfront costs but improve airflow and longevity
 - o B2B platforms in Asia now offer real-time pricing, inventory tracking, and automated ordering for faster procurement
- For accurate budgeting, it is recommended to contact local suppliers for updated quotes, confirm
