

Recommended Serbian Distribution Box Manufacturers

Article Overview

Top Serbian manufacturers for distribution boxes include MAK TRADE GROUP, CIP d.o.o., and D-BOX, offering high-quality electrical and industrial solutions.

Key Manufacturers

1. MAK TRADE GROUP Based in Serbia, MAK TRADE GROUP specializes in automation, electrical insulation, electrical accessories, and illumination products, including distribution boxes. They are known for their broad product range and experience in supplying industrial and commercial electrical solutions . 2. CIP d.o.o. Located in Valjevo, CIP d.o.o. focuses on production, distribution, and sale of universal changeover switch boxes and related electrical enclosures. Their offerings are suitable for industrial applications requiring reliable switching and distribution solutions . 3. D-BOX Although primarily a packaging company, D-BOX in Belgrade produces customized boxes for industrial and chemical products, including protective packaging for sensitive equipment. Their expertise in durable, functional, and temperature-resistant boxes makes them a potential partner for specialized distribution box needs .

Considerations for Choosing a Manufacturer

- o Certifications and Standards: Look for ISO certifications (e.g., ISO 9001, ISO 14001) to ensure quality and compliance with international standards .
- o Customization Capabilities: Companies like D-BOX offer tailored solutions, which can be important for specialized electrical or industrial applications .
- o Distribution and Logistics: Serbian manufacturers often provide efficient delivery across Europe, leveraging Serbia's strategic location for short transit times to Central and Western Europe .
- o Technical Support: Manufacturers with in-house design and engineering support can assist in selecting the right distribution box for specific electrical or industrial requirements .

Additional Notes

While some Serbian companies focus on packaging boxes, their expertise in durable, protective, and custom-designed boxes can complement industrial distribution needs. For strictly electrical distribution boxes, MAK TRADE GROUP and CIP d.o.o. are the most directly relevant suppliers . By considering certifications, customization, and logistics capabilities, businesses can select a Serbian manufacturer that meets both technical and operational requirements.
