Considerations for Choosing a Manufacturer

- o Material type: Wooden crates, cardboard, or corrugated fibreboard depending on product fragility and transport conditions.
- o Customization: Ability to produce boxes in specific sizes, with branding or protective features.
- o Delivery and storage: Manufacturers offering warehousing and timely delivery can streamline logistics.
- o Sustainability: Companies using eco-friendly materials and processes may align with corporate responsibility goals. These Estonian manufacturers are reputable choices for businesses seeking reliable, high-quality distribution boxes for industrial or commercial use.
