

Article Overview

Taiwan offers a wide range of pressure sensors and fiber optic cables, with pricing available directly from manufacturers and suppliers via trade inquiry platforms.

Pressure Sensors in Taiwan

Taiwan hosts over 1,300 pressure sensor products from more than 350 manufacturers and exporters, including companies like SENCERA Co., Ltd., LINS Hydraulics Corp., and RE-Atlantis Enterprise Co., Ltd. These sensors cover industrial, automotive, and specialized applications. While specific prices vary by model, quantity, and technical specifications, suppliers typically provide quotes upon request through platforms like Taiwantrade, where you can submit inquiries and arrange online meetings with manufacturers to obtain detailed pricing .

Fiber Optic Sensor Cables

Fiber optic sensor cables in Taiwan are used for pressure, temperature, and strain monitoring in industries such as telecommunications, civil engineering, and industrial automation. Leading market players include Prysmian Group, Nexans, Corning, and NKT, offering high-sensitivity cables with immunity to electromagnetic interference. Prices depend on cable type, length, and application requirements, and suppliers generally provide custom quotes for bulk or specialized orders .

How to Obtain Price Lists

- o Taiwantrade Platform: Search for "pressure sensor" or "fiber optic cable" to access supplier catalogs and submit trade inquiries for pricing .
- o Direct Supplier Contact: Many Taiwanese manufacturers respond to email or videoconference requests for quotations. Examples include SENCERA Co., Ltd., LINS Hydraulics Corp., and City Wall Enterprise Co. .
- o Distributor Websites: International distributors like Mouser Electronics provide unit pricing for fiber optic sensors, which can serve as a reference for market rates .

Recommendations

- o Specify technical requirements (pressure range, cable length, connector type) when requesting quotes to get accurate pricing.
- o Consider bulk orders or long-term supply agreements to negotiate better rates.
- o Use online trade platforms to compare multiple suppliers and request samples if needed. By following these steps, you can obtain up-to-date pricing and supplier information for both pressure sensors and optical cables in Taiwan.
